

The air waves belong to all the American people. They should be leased for a profit, which monies should be directed at educating the public about the issues important to us. It would be a perfect model where the commercial interests support the furthering of an informed public. You have made a good beginnig with C-SPAN! Carry on...and don't forget...HIRE UNION ACTORS!!!!!!...Colter Rule